

Ariadne Japanese Maple

(Acer palmatum Ariadne)

This lovely small maple has unique color among the reticulate (contrasting vein color) leaf forms. Spring leaves are flushed with salmon-bronze against red-purple flowers, fading to a bronze-green in summer before turning a deep dusty rose in fall. Low and wide. Part shade to shade. 6 ft x 8 ft