

Sagara Nishiki Japanese Maple

(Acer palmatum Sagara Nishiki)

Spectacular in spring when emerging leaves have bright yellow margins over light green with a pink cast. The pink fades quickly leaving yellow and lime green for summer which bursts into bright reds and oranges in the fall. A uniquely colored small upright tree. Shade needed. 8 ft.