

Seiryu Japanese Maple

(Acer palmatum Seiryu)

Seiryu has a unique combination of features among Japanese maples: its finely dissected green leaves turn to red-orange in the fall, and it is sun tolerant and upright in form. A special focal point. Sun to part shade. Wide spreading crown to 18 ft.