

Snipes Rising in Mist Japanese Maple (Acer palmatum Shigatatsu sawa)

One of the most dainty and elegant of the reticulate (contrasting leaf vein color) maples. Leaves emerge very pale green with dark green veins, then darken to medium green in summer. In fall, the plant is like fireworks with all colors mixed. Small and slow growing, wider than tall. Shade. 5 ft x 7 ft