

Lion's Mane Japanese Maple

(Acer palmatum Shishigashira)

This 19th century selection is known as the "Lion's Mane" for the tightly compacted, crumpled leaves that turn bright rusty orange in fall. Among the last maples to turn color in autumn. A sturdy, tight growing upright tree. Sun tolerant. 12-15 ft.