

Floating Cloud Japanese Maple

(Acer palmatum Ukigumo)

The leaves of Floating Cloud emerge in spring almost pure white with a pink flush, gaining increasing flecks of green with the heat of summer. In fall, they change to a mix of red and orange. A beauty! Best in part sun to part shade. Upright, wide crown. 10 ft.